Thinking of you...we want you to know we care!

Our sympathy goes out to Betty and Richard Bean. Betty's brother passed away in December.

Betty Youngs, a past member of BOTB, passed away Christmas morning. We extend our sympathy to her family.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Peggy Psimas as she faces health problems. Members can access Peggy Psimas' webpage on the internet at www.caringbridge.org. Be sure to type her name without a space (peggypsimas) to visit the website. This website includes an online journal where Peggy can keep you informed of what is going on in her life.

We congratulate Bob and Peggy Psimas on the birth of their fifth grandchild. Their eldest son, Rob and his wife Lisa had their third child on January 2, 2011...Gavin James Psimas.

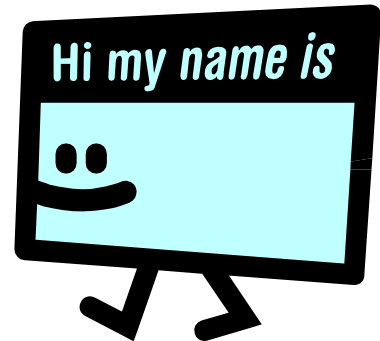

Bubba Merrill, a past member of BOTB, was involved in a serious car accident on Jan12. He is hospitalized in Norfolk Sentara Hospital. Please keep him in your thoughts and prayers.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to John Brickhouse and Dennie Duke who are experiencing health difficulties. John is in Maryview Hospital and Dennie is in Duke Hospital.

Shag Dancing in Hampton Roads

Hampton Roads is just one big dance floor -- 1&2 onto the Peninsula (hopefully you won't miss a beat as you go through the tunnel), 3&4 back to Norfolk & Virginia Beach with a stutter step to Portsmouth, and then rock step to Suffolk. Visit their website at www.shagquest.com to find out where the bands are playing each night. The bands at the outdoor concerts are rated according to their "shag-dance-ability" from 0-5 with 5 being the best.
